On 28 April 1954, three trucks with drivers wearing black-bordered blue coaslets and loaded with one fuel container each, and one wrecker-type truck were observed proceeding through Dessau from the direction of Aken. Source noticed that the fuel containers had previously been emplaced in the ground to three quarters of their height. The drivers of the trucks asked source for the road to Zerbst.

Comment. The fuel containers were possibly shipped from the Aken fuel depot to the fighter regiment at Zerbst. The number of the wrecker was reported for the first time.
